August 2008 News from Michelle
New Freebie

Hello again:

We are home now after a very busy summer of traveling. Our travel is subsiding, with just a couple of short trips yet this year.

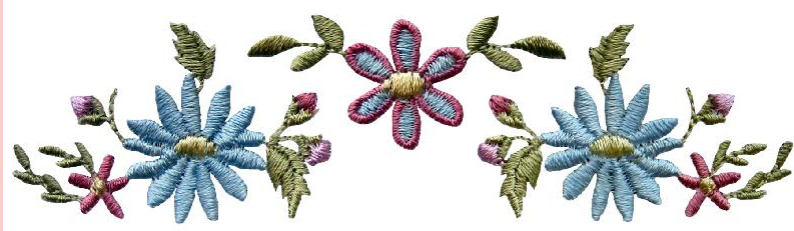

Our calendar for next year is filling up quickly, so be sure to check frequently to see if we will be in your area or if there are events you would like to attend.

We are really excited about the new items we are working on for you. There will be both projects and design sets. Be sure to sign up for our newsletter so that you don't miss out on the announcements of the new products!

Those of you who missed our Victorian Romance Retreat in Temecula, CA, in May have a couple of more opportunities to attend this great retreat and make the Victorian Romance quilt. See the information below about the upcoming retreat at D & J Sewing in Clovis, CA, and the class at the Martha Pullen School of Art Fashion in February 2009.

Free Daisy Border

We are happy to release another freebie for you. This cute daisy border was inspired by the local flower fields. It is a little larger than some of our other freebies, requiring a 5" x 7" hoop. We'd love to see some of the projects you use this on.

D&J Sewing Victorian Retreat

D&J Sewing in Clovis, California, is offering the Victorian Romance Retreat, taught by Michelle Griffith, September 10-13. Space is limited, so sign up soon. See their website for more information.

Michelle Griffith's Pfaff School

February 2009 I will be teaching two projects during the pre-day classes at the Martha Pullen School of Art Fashion in Huntsville, Alabama: one day for Rosie's Little Dolly and two days for a new Lace Shaping Board Carry-All. The Victorian Romance quilt will be a four day class during the school.

Rosie's little dolly has a sweet machine-embroidered face and hair, for which you will use a top-of-the line Pfaff sewing and embroidery. When the embroidery is completed, you will sew up the dolly and make her nightgown, nightcap, and panties.

The Lace Shaping Board Carry-all was created especially for this School of Art Fashion. It is designed to keep the board clean and make transporting it easier. This project includes machine embroidery as well as construction and quilting techniques. It features a large front pocket that is embellished with a large embroidered floral bouquet, lace shaping, entredeux, ribbon weaving, and decorative stitching. The project kit will be cut from the Victorian Romance fabric designed by Michelle for RJR Fabrics.

The beautiful Victorian Romance quilt features three of Michelle's exclusive embroidery designs, bobbin work with specialty threads, English lace overlay, decorative entredeux stitching and more! The quilt top will be constructed from Michelle's Victorian Romance fabric collection by RJR fabrics.

For more information about the Martha Pullen School of Art Fashion, go to Martha's website at <http://www.marthapullen.com/schools/School.html>.

Early registration begins September 3, so don't delay!
